Plaintiff AdoreMe, Inc. ("Adore Me" or "Plaintiff") for its complaint against Defendant Lavender Lingerie, LLC, dba Savage X Fenty ("Savage" or "Defendant") states as follows:

INTRODUCTION

- 1. This is an action for infringement of Plaintiff's federally registered trademark ADORE ME under Section 32(1) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1114(1); infringement of Plaintiff's common law trademark under Section 32(1) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1125; unfair competition and false designation of origin under Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1125(a); and for substantial and related claims under the statutory and common laws of the State of California.
- 2. Adore Me owns federal trademark registrations and common law rights for its mark ADORE ME (the "ADORE ME Mark") that cover, inter alia, various items of clothing and lingerie in Class 25 and related retail and online retail store services in Class 36, including Reg. No. 4,182,189 (stylized) and Reg. No. 6,019,184. True and correct copies of Adore Me's registrations for the ADORE ME Mark are attached hereto as Exhibit A.
- 3. The claims stated herein arise from Defendant's blatant and willful trading upon Adore Me's goodwill and infringing Adore Me's intellectual property, including through Defendant's unauthorized use of a mark or marks confusingly similar to Adore Me's ADORE ME Mark in connection with clothing products such as lingerie and related online retail services.
- 4. In particular, Savage has advertised its own goods and services using ADORE US, which is confusingly similar to ADORE ME, by prominently displaying the mark in sponsored ads on search engines such as Google for its own line of lingerie. Contrary to what such advertising suggests, Savage's clothing products and retail services are not authorized by, sponsored by, or affiliated with Adore Me.
- 5. Unless Defendant is enjoined from infringing Adore Me's intellectual property rights and otherwise deceiving the consuming public and appropriating Adore Me's goodwill, Adore Me will continue to suffer substantial damage and ongoing and irreparable harm.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. The complaint arises under the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051 et seq. and under the common laws of the State of California.

- 7. This court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 as to the claims under federal law and pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a) as to the claims under state law.
- 8. Venue in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b), and because Savage sells or offers to sell its infringing products in this district, has committed acts of trademark infringement in this district, maintains a regular place of business in this district, and because a substantial part of the events giving rise to Adore Me's claims arose in this district.
- 9. This Court has both general and specific personal jurisdiction over Savage consistent with the principles of due process because Savage is headquartered in this district, does systematic business in this district, including by maintaining business operations in this district, as well as offering its infringing products and selling them in this district, thereby committing acts of trademark infringement and unfair competition in this district.

THE PARTIES

- 21. To protect the integrity of its brand, Adore Me vigilantly enforces its rights in the ADORE ME Mark against those who infringe.

B. Savage's Unauthorized Use of the ADORE US Mark

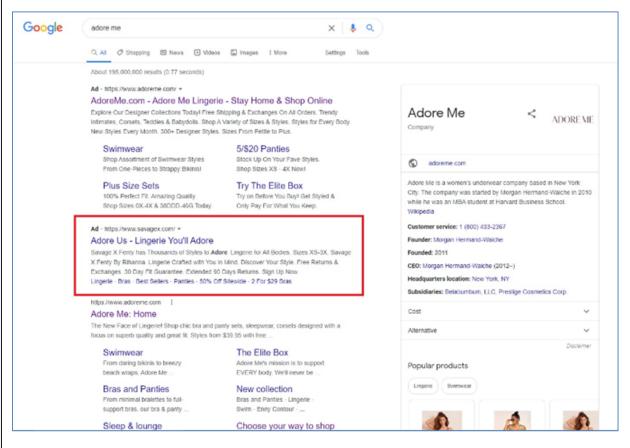

- 22. Trading on Adore Me's longstanding rights in the ADORE ME Mark, and without Adore Me's authorization, Defendant recently began using ADORE US, a mark confusingly similar to the ADORE ME Mark, (the "ADORE US Mark") to advertise, promote and offer competing goods and retail services.
- 23. Defendant has been engaged in the unauthorized promotion and offering of retail services and competing goods for sale using the ADORE US Mark.
  - 24. Defendant displays the ADORE US Mark in online advertising in a confusing manner that is likely to lead consumers to believe that Defendant's goods and services are authorized by or are otherwise affiliated with, associated with, or approved by Adore Me. Savage purchases keywords identical to the ADORE ME Mark and uses them to serve misleading advertisements in search engine results. Specifically, in a Google advertisement for its products, the ADORE US Mark appears prominently among results for Adore Me and its products and services, as shown below:

25. When a customer searches for Adore Me's products offered under the ADORE ME Mark, the search results return Savage's prominent use of the ADORE US Mark in connection with a link to Savage's website, thus falsely indicating that clicking on that link will take the consumer to a site with products offered by, authorized by, or affiliated with Adore Me. The advertisement is misleading to ordinary consumers who are likely to believe that they are purchasing Adore Me's goods from an online retail source authorized by Adore Me. Adore Me

Savage rather than the authorized Adore Me website.

26. Savage's infringing acts as alleged herein are likely to cause confusion, mistake and deception among the relevant consuming public as to the source or origin of Defendant's goods and services and have deceived and are likely to deceive the relevant consuming public into believing, mistakenly, that Defendant's goods and services originate from, are associated or affiliated with, or otherwise authorized by Adore Me.

- 27. On June 4, 2021, Adore Me sent a cease and desist letter to Defendant notifying it of its infringement of the ADORE ME Mark. Defendant did not respond either to Adore Me's letter or to a subsequent follow-up communication by Adore Me sent on June 8, 2021. Though it appeared that infringing advertisements were removed on or about June 8, 2021, Adore Me learned this week that they were again in use by Defendant.
- 28. Savage's acts are willful, with the deliberate intent to trade on the goodwill of the ADORE ME Mark, cause confusion and deception in the marketplace, and divert customers of Adore Me's services to Savage.
- 29. Savage is causing, and unless restrained, will continue to cause damage and immediate irreparable harm to Adore Me and to its valuable reputation and goodwill with the consuming public, for which damage Adore Me has no adequate remedy at law.
